

Good Person Test

Do you consider yourself to be a good person? Almost everyone thinks they are good. But the question you should be asking is, "Am I good enough to go to Heaven?"

HOW WOULD YOU KNOW? The way to find out is to ask yourself if you have obeyed the Ten Commandments. Let's look at a few and see how you do...

1. You shall not lie. Have you ever told a lie? What do we call people who tell lies? We call them a liar. How many murders do you have to commit to be a murderer? Just one. If you have told even one lie, then God sees you as a liar. The Bible warns that all liars will have their part in the Lake of Fire (Revelation 21:8). You may not think deceitfulness is a serious sin, but God does. Check your answer:

GUILTY – Yes, I have broken this commandment at least once.

INNOCENT – No, I have NEVER broken this commandment in my life.

2. You shall not steal. Have you ever stolen anything (even if it was something small)? The value of the thing stolen doesn't matter; petty theft is still theft. Have you ever taken anything that belonged to someone else (from the office, school, parents, downloaded music you didn't pay for, etc.)? If you have, that makes you a thief. Check your answer:

GUILTY – Yes, I have broken this commandment at least once.

INNOCENT – No, I have NEVER broken this commandment in my life.

3. You shall not murder. Jesus warned "Whoever is angry with his brother without cause, is in danger of judgment," (Matthew 5:22) and the Bible says, "He who hates his brother is a murderer," (1 John 3:15). God sees hatred in the heart to be as wicked as murder. Have you ever hated anyone? Check your answer:

GUILTY – Yes, I have broken this commandment at least once.

INNOCENT – No, I have NEVER broken this commandment in my life.

4. You shall not commit adultery. Jesus warned, "You have heard... 'You shall not commit adultery.' But I say to you that whoever looks at a woman to lust for her has already committed adultery with her in his heart," (Matthew 5:28). Have you ever looked at another person with lust? The Bible says that adulterers and fornicators (those who have had sex before marriage) will not enter the kingdom of heaven (1 Corinthians 6:9). Have you ever looked at someone with lust? Check your answer:

GUILTY – Yes, I have broken this commandment at least once.

INNOCENT – No, I have NEVER broken this commandment in my life.

If you were honest, you just admitted that you are a liar, a thief, a murderer and an adulterer – and we've only looked at 4 of the Ten Commandments. There are six more!

If God were to judge you by His standard of the Ten Commandments, would you deserve to go to Heaven or to Hell?

Does the fact that you have sinned against God concern you? It should. You have actually angered Him by your sin. The Bible says His wrath abides on you (John 3:36), and that you are an "enemy of God in your mind through wicked works," (Colossians 1:21).

Who of us can say we are not guilty of breaking these Commandments? This is what the Bible means when it says, "All have sinned and fall short of the Glory of God," (Romans 3:23). Can you see your predicament? You are guilty of sinning against God Himself, and, because you have a conscience, (con-with, science-knowledge) you have sinned "with knowledge." Isn't it true that every time you lied, stole, or lusted, etc., you knew it was wrong?

Perhaps you think God is good and because of his goodness He will overlook your sins? But if you knew of a human judge who turned a blind eye to the crimes of a guilty rapist... would you describe him as a "good" judge? No. That would be a corrupt judge. God could never be a corrupt judge. He will punish all the rapists, murderers, and thieves... But he won't stop there. He will also punish all liars, the lustful, adulterers, idolaters, and blasphemers, (Revelation 21:8). The place of eternal punishment is Hell. But because God is rich in mercy and compassion, he has provided a way for you to be forgiven. He has invited you to come to Him for a full pardon and receive the free gift of Eternal Life. You cannot earn it, and you do not deserve it, but God is offering it to you as proof of His love for you.

Imagine you are standing in front of a judge, guilty of multiple serious crimes. All the evidence has been presented and there is no doubt about your guilt. Your apologies and good works cannot erase your crimes; therefore you must be punished. The fine for your crime is $250,000 or imprisonment, but you don't have two pennies to rub together. The judge is about to pass sentence when someone you don't even know steps in and pays your fine for you! The court accepts the money and declares that you are free to go. The law has been satisfied, your debt has been paid in full, and the stranger's sacrifice was a demonstration of his love for you. That's what God did for you 2000 years ago. The Bible says that the God of the Universe became a man (Jesus Christ), and suffered and died on the cross for your sins and mine so that we could be set free. It's as simple as this—we broke the Law, and Jesus paid our fine. "God demonstrated His own love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us." (Romans 5:8) "Christ redeemed us from the curse of the Law, being made a curse for us." (Galatians 3:13) Do you see God's great love for you? Do you see your need for His forgiveness? Then do what He commands and "Repent...that your sins may be wiped out and times of refreshing may come from the Lord." (Acts 3:19) You must turn away from sin and turn to God. Desire to have NOTHING to do with sin, and surrender your life to the One who can save you. Jesus died to set you free, and then he rose from death to be your Lord. Jesus said, "I am the Way, the Truth, and the Life. No one comes to the Father except through me." If you will confess and forsake your sins (repent) and trust in Jesus Christ as your Savior and Lord, God will forgive you and you'll pass from death to life. If you are not sure how to pray, read Psalm 51 and make it your prayer. What does it mean to "put your faith in Jesus Christ?" It means to personally trust in Jesus the same way you'd trust in a parachute if you had to jump 25,000 feet out of an airplane. You wouldn't just "believe" in the parachute; you would put it on! In the same way, the Bible says, "Put on the Lord Jesus Christ..." and you will be saved. There are millions of people who "believe" Jesus exists... but they have not put on the Savior—there's a BIG difference. And the difference will be obvious when you "jump" through the door of death.

Today, with all your heart—turn away from sin, and surrender your life to Jesus Christ. Please don't put it off till later. You may die today and then it will be too late. Please repent and trust Christ today. God will transform you from the inside out. You will think and feel differently as you learn to trust and obey Him. God will give you new strength to live right and love Him above all else. Read your Bible daily and obey His Word. You can trust God— He loves you and will always be faithful. If you've decided to reject the gift of forgiveness and you die in your sins, there is no hope for you. There is no purgatory. The wrath of God abides on you and you will spend eternity in Hell. Please take the time to consider your sins and that God is willing to forgive you if you repent of your sins and put your faith in Christ and follow Christ as Lord.

We'd be happy to help you out any way we can!

Your friends at Fellowship Bible Church.
603-887-2599 ~ www.fbcchester.net